Preaching and Teaching in the Bible. According to the Bible, preaching and teaching are partners in ministry but also different. If you read through the Bible casually, you may think that preaching and teaching are being used interchangeably, but there are quite a few verses where they are preaching and teaching are both mentioned.

The Difference Between Preaching and Teaching - Pro Preacher

Reading the sermon was a holy ecclesiastical duty. The very first sermon I ever “preached” was a reading sermon. I was still in my early twenties and my elders asked me at my home visitation if there was anything in the church that needed improving. I said, “We need better sermon readers when the minister is away.”
