Witch Born Song 2 Amber

O.M.G. If Witch Song was amazing, Witch Born was downright mind-blowing! Usually, I'm not one to dwell on the ending of a series; if the characters get their closure and/or their HEA, I'm OK with it and I move on; this time though, I really, really feel like stalking Amber Argyle and begging her to write more books in this world.

develops from a naive and innocent young girl to a witch with a powerful song, and it is believable and relatable because of the struggles she endures to get there.

Book Review: Witch Song by Amber Argyle • Shona Kaye

I listened to the Audible version of Witch Born, the second book in the Witch Song series by Amber Argyle. Witch Born picks up soon after the events in the first book, so to better understand the story and characters, you really need to start with Witch Song. As with the change of Brusenna's name to Senna, this is a story of "new beginnings."
